

TOM News Bites

News from the London Market TOM programme

April 2017

View from the market

Electronic placing builds better relationships

Hayley Robinson, Managing Director of Global Risk Solutions at RSA, explains why joining Placing Platform Limited (PPL) complements RSA's aim to combine innovation and expertise and become a stronger partner for brokers and customers. » Read more

TOM talks to the market

LM TOM working with Ruschlikon

In the first of a three-part series Joe Dainty, Global Head of Operations at Lloyd's of London, outlines the latest developments in the LM TOM Programme and its collaboration with Ruschlikon. » Read more

London Market TOM solutions

TOM Solutions update

Each month we report on the progress of TOM's core solutions as we continue on our mission to make London an easier and more cost-effective place to do business. » Read more

Delegated Authority

Full function ahead for audit system

The next stage of the audit system, with increased functionality, is on track to go live in June. » Read more

Setting the right standards

Dominique Largeton, Delegated Authorities Underwriting Assistant Manager at Chubb Global Markets, is a member of the DA Data Standards working group which is helping to set standards for key classes of business. » Read more

Data

By the market, for the market – Structured Data Capture COO breakfast

Carriers give COOs a briefing on the LM TOM Structured Data Capture (SDC) solution. » Read more

Innovation

Profile: Ed Ventham of Digital Risks

Ed Ventham talks about his passion for insurance and technology and why he decided to get involved with the LM TOM's Innovation Exchange. » Read more

Day in the life

The shape of things to come

The TOM programme is a great catalyst in modernising the London Market, says Kim Darrington, Senior Market Modernisation Executive for the International Underwriting Association of London (IUA). » Read more

TOM

London Market Target Operating Model