

TOM News Bites

News from the London Market TOM programme

May 2017

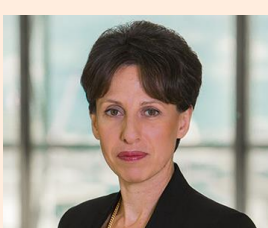

View from the market

Taking a structured approach

Michael Gould, Chief Operating Officer at Talbot Underwriting Ltd and Chair of the Structured Data Capture (SDC) Steering Group, reflects on how moving and sharing data more effectively will help make London an easier place to do business. » Read more

TOM talks to the market

Shirine Khoury-Haq blog: Keeping our foot on the gas, London Matters report 2017

There are occasions when we act on hunch and instinct – and often that works fine. But when you are investing the market's hard-earned cash, basing your decisions on hard facts is crucial. » Read more

A change for the better

Allen Bruce, Head of TOM Change Management, and his team, are helping companies negotiate the LM TOM programme, making London an easier place to do business. » Read more

LM TOM working with Ruschlikon

In the second of a three- part series, Joe Dainty, Global Head of Operations at Lloyd's of London, outlines the latest developments in the LM TOM Programme and its collaboration with Ruschlikon. » Read more

London Market Group

Latest London Matters report: challenges remain

Reinsurance, emerging markets and diversity pose issues for the London Market but traditional strengths remain. » Read more

London Market TOM solutions

TOM Solutions update

Each month we report on the progress of TOM's core solutions as we continue on our mission to make London an easier and more cost-effective place to do business. » Read more

Innovation

Profile of Ola Jacob

Associate Broker Political Violence and Energy, Alesco Risk Management, Ola is a member of the Innovation Shadow council. He talks about his passion for insurance and technology. » Read more

Day in the life

Taking a diplomatic approach to data

Better data is central to the London Market's modernisation journey but getting people to understand its business benefits can be challenging, says Helen Crooks, Chief Data Officer at Lloyd's and LM TOM Champion for Data. » Read more

TOM

London Market Target Operating Model